One of the important aspects of the education of the young generation is that in the minds of young people, together with various principles, the form of social consciousness is also important. Only the one who considers the destiny of the country as his destiny will actively continue in the continuum of Marofi political reforms. Various changes in the process of globalization of the ideology of society and individual in a wide way bring about the connection of ideological education and ideological thinking in a harmonious way.

When it comes to educational reforms and the education of a well-rounded person, the following thoughts of our honorable president Shavkat Miromonovich Merziyoyev are very appropriate: "It is our most important task to pay attention to spirituality and enlightenment, moral education, the desire of young people to acquire knowledge and reach maturity⁷⁶."

In fact, the social events that take place in the society of the world mobilize the knowledge and skills acquired spiritually and educationally by any young generation who consider the fate of the homeland as their honor. This process creates the uniqueness of socio-political actions carried out in the continuous education system along with moral reforms in the formation of the spirit of patriotism in youth education and the creation of an exemplary social lifestyle. One of the important structural components of ideological principles is ideological weapons, the implementation of ideological prophylactic work to prevent the occurrence of ideological aggression is one of the important software tools. Indeed, in our human society, education is one of the most important aspects of education, and even today, it is one of the most important tasks to form the broad thinking and awareness level of young people in connection with the five initiatives, and to educate young people in the spirit of patriotism in order to place our beloved Motherland among the most developed countries of the world. It consists of various components that are being implemented as a result of the work carried out together with the employees of the field, who are actively active in this year , to understand the essence of the spirit of patriotism of the youth . It is more important than ever to form the fundamentals of the means and the national idea and spiritual system that forms their basis, as well as the essence of the feeling of the homeland .

One of the unique features of educating young people in the spirit of love for the motherland is that it is one of the most important issues of today to develop respect for the cultural heritage, to raise their intellectual potential in every way to protect the future of our country. It is considered one of the most effective tasks of education in the spirit of Uzbekistan, and one of the most important tasks is to serve together with parents, the general public, and devotees of science. It forms the main tasks of educating young people in the spirit of patriotism, which makes extensive use of political, cultural information, and literature. In this regard, the most advanced organizers of our society, the neighborhood and family center, together with the youth agency of the Youth Union, youth support funds, raise their consciousness in an ideological and spiritual way, and protect them from ideological disorder in any situation. We must not forget that protecting the interests of the country, honor, and the country is one of the greatest virtues. In fact, today, in the process of global popularization, when universal human ideas have risen to a level, it is necessary to be more vigilant than ever before, taking into account the connection between the human factor and the natural factor, and the relevance of various social phenomena to the present day, and in the minds of young people, the mentality of our nation is characteristic of our culture. We should attach great importance to the formation of education in a continuous manner. In this regard, we must not forget that along with increasing the strategic importance of the New Uzbekistan , our traditions, culture, rituals and forms of education serve as the most important task. In this regard, as Abdulla Awlani said, "Education is a matter of life or death, disaster or happiness for us" is definitely appropriate. It is one of the most important tasks to honor the national idea and ideology of national independence among our youth , and to carry out the glorious tasks of adding prestige to our country. In this case, the cultural renewal of spiritual reform, which is being carried out in our society, requires the implementation of various actions . In addition, it is necessary to protect the borders of our country perfectly, to protect it from enemies, and to raise the flag of the country to the sky. education of athletes is one of the most urgent issues of today, not to forget that the most important task is to educate them as a healthy and useful person for the society. Comprehensive support of young people in fields such as science, art, creativity, and economy is the biggest factor in illuminating the future of New Uzbekistan. In this regard, human dignity is the greatest duty of the selfless servants of education together with spiritualists, to do all the virtues that can be done by human beings, to avoid evils, to approach goodness, to educate young people in the way of serving goodness. "The basis of spirituality is the spiritual, cultural and material foundations, traditions, values, lifestyle, ideas and views of the society and the nation . " ⁷⁷In this case, continuous forms of education together with education, art, creativity, primary education, secondary education, higher education and other educations are implemented. It is the unique characteristics of human spirituality and national independence consciousness. In this, freedom of conscience is perfectly inculcated in any youth education, the importance of conscience, the benefits of a conscientious person in the general public scientific literary process and our daily lifestyle, productive and meaningful organization of free time of young people, supporting young people who need help and support. taking into account that providing them with all-round assistance is the main task of today, the future of our country serves as one of the first steps towards its development efforts. Inculcating qualities such as homeland, sense of homeland, universal humanity, universal spirituality , shaping our youth for the future and the social life that will arise as a result of future actions and ancestors in a way that is worthy of the generation, this is the New Uzbekistan education system, personnel training program is one of the most important tasks facing spiritualists. "Therefore, no matter how difficult it may be, we will never back down from our chosen son. We will definitely reach our goals. In this way, we rely on our people with great intentions, pure hearts and hardworking people ⁷⁸.

In addition to the perfect study of the history of our country, promotion to the general public, training of young personnel who will serve our country in various fields of science, art, and creativity is widely implemented today. Traditions, social ceremonies and holidays are of great importance in our daily life, along with various social events, in bringing up young people to benefit our society . It is understood that it is one of the most important tasks of parents, and also of pedagogues and teachers , to form in the minds of young people the feeling of love for the country, honoring the country, and serving the country . Regarding the formation of a spiritual way of life , the relationship between books and book tools is definitely great in the formation of feelings and concepts, such as criteria for entering into spiritual relations of the nation and society. Under the leadership of our respected president Shavkat Mirziyoyev Miromonovich, supporting young people in the social circle of young readers, increasing attention to books and book products, further shaping the spirit of patriotism in the minds of young people, supporting young people who are making efforts in this direction is the most important thing today. It is one of its duties and one of its joys. Human honor and the value of the country can reach the value of humanity only if human spirituality is strong. He can connect the destiny of the country with his own destiny. Only a person who can fight with social education and social political ideas with his work, life, creative thinking, social ideas in the way of the destiny of the country, can bring the honor of the country to the highest peak. In the formation of the duty of love for the country, a person's relationship with an individual, family, society, a feeling of gratitude for living and living in this society, spiritual and cultural heritage, respect for the sacred symbols of the motherland, honoring them, becoming a person who serves the national idea and thinking, is beneficial to humanity. Implementation of propaganda work serves as the goals and objectives of the national independence ideology. The social and economic basis of the idea of national independence consists of manashus.
